

PROJECT ABC WINS TWO SAMHSA AWARDS

Project ABC, based in Service Area 8, won two SAMHSA awards in Washington, D.C., at its annual conference in July. Project ABC won first prize for the "People's Choice" Award in Excellence in Community Communications and Outreach for an event it held celebrating Children's Mental Health Awareness Day in May 2013. Project ABC also garnered a Bronze Award in the category of Partners and Organization.

Project ABC is a SAMHSA-funded system of care grant that provides mental health services to young children and their families. It includes the agencies: For the Child, Childrens International, Inc., Pacific Asian Counseling Services, TIES and the Los Angeles County Department of Children and Family Services.
